GREAT THROGS TO VISIT MAYSVILLE ON NEXT THURSDAY

Many Expected To Journey Here on Thursday to Hear Col. Roosevelt, Governor Morrow, Mrs. South and Mr. Ernst at Big Rally.

Maysville is expected to be filled with people of all political faiths Thursday when our city is to be visited by a great group of political orators to present the Republican claims. This group will be made up of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Governor Edwin P. Morrow, Mrs. Christine Bradley South and Mr. Richard P. Ernst, the Republican candidate for United States Senator. The party will arrive here at 3:30 Thursday afternoon and leave for Newport at 4:40 where they will speak at a big rally Thursday evening.

The speaking will be held in the court house square, the speakers standing on the court house steps. This square should be filled to overflowing with people and indications are that the throng will be immense. People from all adjoining counties have sent word that they will be here in great numbers.

The Maysville Boys' Band will meet the train and escort the party to the court house in honor of the visit of the Governor.

Colonel Roosevelt, who is spending this week in Kentucky is addressing great crowds in all parts of the state and the Mason county crowd promises to be as large as any which has yet greeted him.

Prepare now to attend this big rally and hear these splendid speakers. Everyone is invited, Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

YOUNG THIEVES CAUGHT AT MANCHESTER.

William Elschlager and Charles Lytle each aged 16 years are in the Adams county jail charged with looting Carroll's clothing store and McNeill's grocery at Manchester. They walked into a trap at 10 o'clock last night at McNeill's. One shot was fired at them by manager Cochran. They screamed when the flashlight was thrown on them. Two hundreds dollars' worth of plunder was recovered from their rooms. Elschlager has recently returned from the reformatory. The Manchester merchants think there is a master mind backing the boys. The prosecutor is working on that basis.

SHOWER TO BE GIVEN WESLEY HOUSE

Women of M. E. Church, South, Plan Shower For Girls' Home Maintained By Church in Lexington.

Among the institutions maintained by the Woman's Missionary Council of the M. E. Church, South, is a number of co-operative homes for young women at work. The Mary Elizabeth Inn in San Francisco, cared for 300 last year. Though 1500 applied for board. Its facilities have been enlarged and improved recently. At Houston, Texas, 275 were enrolled during the year, and half as many visitors entertained, each girl being allowed an occasional guest.

The Wesley House at Lexington accommodates about thirty, and is usually crowded. Board is placed at the lowest possible figure to supply the table and the general upkeep is provided by the Council and local boards. Boxes of supplies donated by the missionary auxiliaries throughout the year are a great help to the Deaconesses in charge and the local society has arranged a household shower to be given at the First M. E. Church, South, Wednesday afternoon from 2:30 to 4. Information concerning articles needed can be obtained from Mrs. Quaintance, Mrs. Humphries or Miss Louise Best.

LIQUOR CASES REFERRED TO NEXT GRAND JURY.

Although the grand jury which adjourned Monday afternoon returned the minutes refusing to indict in the cases against Frank Bramel and Leo Moran, charged with furnishing liquor, these cases were referred back to the next grand jury on motion of the County Attorney and the bonds of the defendants were continued at the same figure.

CITY SCHOOL HEAD HAS A WORD WITH STUDENTS' PARENTS

Superintendent Caplinger Makes First Statement To Parents of School Children on Their Work.

Prof. W. J. Caplinger, Superintendent of City Schools, today issued this statement directed to the patrons of local schools:

We are giving the Honor Roll for the first month of school and while the attention of the parents is called to the Honor Roll, we deem it advisable to endeavor to call your attention to a few other matters of interest to school.

With reference to the High School, we desire first to say something concerning HOME STUDY. It is the opinion of practically all of the High School educators, that students of High School age and rank should study from two to four hours every night. We have made an honest endeavor to get students to study at least two hours at home and if they are not studying that much, I hope the parent will insist that at least this minimum amount of time be spent in home study. It doesn't matter how much the student may say that he is getting passing grades there should be home study even then for the two-fold reason:

First: No doubt they could get the work more thoroughly and pass with higher grades if they did the home studying.

Second: Even though they have been unusually quick in getting the lessons, sufficient time should be put on the work to clinch it, as it were, in the mind.

One of the most difficult classes of students to deal with in High School is that class which learns so readily from the printed page that they do not put in enough conscientious effort to get the instruction thoroughly established.

As has been our usual custom, the report cards will be given out on Monday following the close of the school month. You should ask for these cards, inspect them, and sign them. Under no consideration should parents allow children to sign their report card or return them to the teacher without the parent's inspection.

We are specially anxious that parents assist us in seeing that all social functions are held at the week-end. If parents all over the city will assist in establishing this custom, they will assist us very materially in being able to give proper instruction to their children. Frequently, children do not appreciate and sometime parents fail to recognize the fact that the business of the child from six to eighteen is to educate himself and to do this it means to put in five days a week of work. The schools have started off nicely. We are meeting the requirements of the Physical Education Law. This is done in the grades by each teacher giving the work, while in the High School Miss Schirmer directs the girls and Mr. Noel the boys. This work is not strenuous and is required of all. Of course, we recognize doctors' certificates stating that pupils are unable to endure physical exertion, but we trust that no one will attempt to take advantage of this situation unless absolutely necessary.

I wish to say in conclusion that if we may judge from the beginning what the results will be, this year gives evidence of being the best school year of my eight in this city. To begin with, the Board of Education has done everything possible to get every factor of the system in shape; second, we think that taking it all in all, we have the best faculty we have ever had; and last, and most important, we feel that the children have manifested a spirit of work that is very desirable.

Below you will find the High school enrollment and total enrollment of the first month for the eight years of my superintendency:

High School enrollment: 1913-14, 190; 1914-15, 203; 1915-16, 217; 1916-17, 216; 1917-18, 199; 1918-19, 208; 1919-20, 204; 1920-21, 216.

Total enrollment, 1913-14, 971; 1914-15, 1003; 1915-16, 987; 1916-17, 1004; 1917-18, 946; 1918-19, 960; 1919-20, 882; 1920-21, 996.

The Honor Roll as you noted is based on the four points: First: Full attendance. Second: No tardiness. Third: Deportment of 90 or better. Fourth: Average examination grade of 90 or better.

Under no consideration do we put the child on the Honor Roll that does not meet the four requirements.

W. J. CAPLINGER, Supt.

INTERESTING LECTURES TO BE FREE FOR ALL

Dr. Winfield Scott Hall, Who Lectures Here on Friday Comes Highly Recommended.

Dr. Winfield Scott Hall who is to lecture at the High School auditorium Friday afternoon and evening has been in every part of the nation and has left the best possible effect everywhere. The following is from the principal of Central High School, Grand Rapids:

"I have known Dr. Winfield Scott Hall during the past ten years. We have been in conference together at Torch Lake with over one hundred high schools boys for several seasons. Never have I known a speaker upon the subject of sex hygiene to treat this subject so safely and so sanely. Dr. Hall is most helpful because his message is full of hopefulness and uplift. He can talk to parents, boys or girls, and win them completely with the simplicity and sympathy of a family physician. I know of no other speaker upon this subject whom I can recommend so sincerely."

These lectures will be as follows: 2 o'clock for boys from the Seventh grade up. 3 o'clock for girls and women. 7:30 o'clock for men.

CURING THE BLUES IS OUR SPECIALTY TOMORROW.

Now what do you think of that? This is a tonic show, a real cure for the blues. Seats will be reserved for all the plumbers of Maysville.

The first show boat of the season will exhibit at the local wharf on Wednesday evening. COUNCIL REFUSES TO GRANT INCREASE TO TELEPHONE CO.

Movement Is Started To Pay Road to Cemetery—Railroad To Be Asked to Guard Crossings at Night.

City Council held a rather busy session Monday evening transacting some rather important business.

Probably the chief business scheduled was the report of the two committees appointed at the last session, one investigating the request of the Maysville Telephone Company for an increase in rental rates and the other, the special committee on garbage disposal.

The committee on the telephone increase reported that after their investigation they were unable to recommend granting the company's request. This report was received by a vote of 8 to 3, Councilmen Brady, Ellet and Keith voting in the negative. Just before Council adjourned, Mr. LeWright Browning, attorney for the company, addressed Council on the matter but there was no reconsideration.

The Garbage Disposal committee reported, through its chairman, Councilman Ellet. They favor a "pigery" as against an incinerator and were granted further time for more investigation. The committee's expenses amounting to $12.60 were allowed.

Councilman Davis suggested that the city, county cemetery company and abutting property owners should pave the Carmel Pike from the end of the paved street on Carmel street to the cemetery gate thereby giving a paved driveway to Maysville's "City of the Dead." His motion that the Mayor appoint a special committee of officials and citizens to look into the matter carried and the committee will be named later.

Mr. Davis' motion that an ordinance abolishing the office of City Prisoner Guard be drawn, was carried by a vote of 9 to 2.

Mr. Davis then made a motion that the city's police force be reduced to 3 members. Mr. Ellet offered an amendment that there be elected one policeman for each ward. The amendment failed of a second and the original motion was lost by a vote of 9 to 2.

Mr. Baker Wood offered to purchase the continuation of North Bank street on the south side of East Second street and the matter was referred to the Proposition and Grievance committee. Councilman Dunlap made a motion that Mayor name a special committee to confer with C. & O. Railroad Com-

MAYSVILLE MAN IS TO HEAD MINERVA SCHOOL

Prof. R. Y. Maxey Elected to Succeed Prof. John Hurst Adams as Principal of Minerva Schools.

Prof. R. Y. Maxey of this city has been elected principal of the Minerva Consolidated Schools to succeed Prof. John Hurst Adams, resigned.

Prof. Maxey is, no doubt, one of the best prepared men in his profession in the county, both in point of successful experience and educational advantages. Mr. Maxey holds the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, and Bachelor of Pedagogy from Transylvania college, a state life diploma from the department of education, University of Kentucky, and has had special training in school administration at the University of Virginia. The county high school offers nothing new to Mr. Maxey for as principal he helped to establish one of the first county high schools in the state and in two years' time had it in an A class of accredited schools. He launched and helped carry to a successful issue a campaign for one of the most handsome and complete school buildings in Kentucky so recognized by state school authorities. The architects carrying out in their design many suggestions made by Mr. Maxey through the Board of Education. The Mason County Board of Education have shown their appreciation of Mr. Maxey's qualifications by offering him a salary sufficiently handsome to justify him in resigning his position of county attendance officer. Minerva gets one of the most efficient school men in the state and her high standard will be maintained. Mr. Maxey enters upon his new duties next Monday.

Rev. and Mrs. William Dorn, of Fort Thomas, arrived here this afternoon to be the guests of relatives.

Many officials in regard to placing certain warnings at the crossing in the East End at night or the continuing of their watchmen at those crossings until midnight. The motion carried and the Mayor named the Councilmen from the Fifth and Sixth wards.

An ordinance making the private switch of J. E. Everett & Co. over Limestone street a public switch was offered and adopted upon a suspension of the rules.

Council as a whole will inspect the asphalt street in the Sixth ward on Wednesday afternoon and officially accept or reject the same.

After a general discussion of the 1920 census returns for Maysville in which several Councilmen expressed their opinion that the returns were incorrect, Council adjourned.

WOMEN PLAY THEIR FIRST BIT IN GAME OF POLITICS TODAY

Polls as Busy at Registration as at Many Elections — Hundreds of Maysville Women Register.

The Women of Kentucky took their first part in politics today and hundreds of Maysville women registered so as to give them the right to cast their vote in the Presidential election on the first Tuesday in November. The number of women registering was surprising to most everyone as it was thought that there would be considerable hesitancy at the first registration on the part of the women. Interest had been stirred up in both parties during the past month, however, and the women were on hand.

The operation of the additional voting places in the city was also a surprise to the political leaders. Much confusion was expected but none has thus far been reported and everything is moving along fine.

The polls will remain open until 9 o'clock this evening and those who have not already registered should do so at once. If you are in the city and if you are not sick and do not register today you will not have the right to vote in November. Register NOW.

CLEVELAND TAKES FIRST OF SERIES

Cleveland, representing the American League, won the first game in the world series which opened at Brooklyn this afternoon from the Brooklyn team of the National League, by a score of 3 to 1. Batteries were: Brooklyn, Marquard, Mammux and Miller; Cleveland, Covelleski and O'Neil. Interest in the world series in this section is not near so great as it was a year ago when the Cincinnati Reds represented the National League, however both contesting clubs have many warm supporters among the Maysville fans.

At a meeting of U. S. District Attorney Slattery and representatives of Kentucky coal operators held last night the price of coal fixed by the Federal grand jury last week was accepted by the operators.

ANNUAL MEMORIAL ADDRESS MADE TO THE CIVIL WAR VETS

Dr. J. J. Dickey Delivers Foreword Address to Survivors of the Tenth and Sixteenth Kentucky Regiments.

Dr. J. J. Dickey delivered the annual Memorial address at the reunion of the veterans of the Tenth and Sixteenth Kentucky regiments held at Beechwood Park, this city, Wednesday, September 29. The speaker said in part:

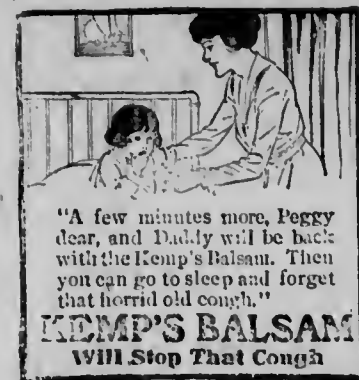

"Venerable Men: Again you are permitted to meet in annual reunion. Your vanishing numbers remind us that 'the paths of glory lead but to the grave.' Since you last greeted each other in this place, made sacred by the associations of other days, eight of your number have heard their last tattoo and have retired to their barracks of clay. The Great Commander has graciously extended your time, and has given to us, again, the honor of your presence. We greet you with feelings of gratitude and reverence. No body of men has ever met within our gates to whom we owe so much as we do to you. Measured by their influence for good upon mankind, your achievements have had a wider and more potent effect than any other war in history. This at first glance may seem an extravagant statement, but the facts in the case will justify the assertion.

"First, the effect of the great Civil War settled two questions of momentous importance to our beloved land. From the formation of our government there were two interpretations of the Constitution regarding the relation of the states to the Federal Union. One school taught that since the union was formed by the voluntary action of the individual states that when the citizens of any of the states saw fit to withdraw from the Union they had a perfect right to do so. The other school held that no such right was reserved to the states. The existence of these two views kept the people in a state of anxiety and unrest up to the Civil War. These questions were discussed in the halls of Congress, in the state legislatures, in the colleges and universities, in the country school houses, in the secular press, and around the firesides of the Nation. The discussion kept alive an apprehension of the dissolution of the Union. The hearts of patriots vibrated between hope and fear. The great Massachusetts statesman, in one of his ponderous speeches, referring to such a possible fate, using a building as a figure of speech, said 'If this building fall, it will rise no again. Like the Colosseum and the Parthenon it will be doomed to a mournful and melancholy immortality. Bitter tears, however, will be shed over it than were ever shed over the remnants of Roman or Grecian art for it will be the ruins of a more glorious edifice than Greece or Rome ever saw—the edifice of Constitutional American liberty.' At length the fatal hour came, so long feared and dreaded, and the settlement of this question was submitted to the arbitration of the sword. The flow of fraternal blood drenched the mountains and plains of this fair land. Four years of deadly conflict ensued, and the decision was in favor of the Union. From the day that Lee offered his sword to Grant, this question has never been raised. It was settled there forever, and you, noble veterans, had a part in that decision.

Another question that had agitated the country from the formation of the Constitution and before, was African slavery. That question also was settled by the Civil War, and it too was settled forever.

To have added to the permanent settlement of two issues of such momentous importance would seem like honor or enough for those who participated, but there was a question of far greater moment to mankind than either of both of these that your sacrifices answered, and the disposal of this question is your true glory. That question was 'Is man capable of self government?' This had been a mooted question since the infancy of the race. Men had viewed with deep concern the tyranny and injustice of human governments. The great mass of mankind had always been slaves. A few men of every nation had claimed a divine right to rule the people. Man is too base to be trusted with unlimited power. The idea was everywhere promulgated that only by kings could government be administered. The great mass of the people believed that to be true, and while they groined under their burdens and longed for deliverance they saw no hope of relief. Sporadic efforts had been made along the area to establish governments of the people, but these efforts had failed. Athens and Rome tried it, but tyranny triumphed. Though great minds still dreamed of such a golden age, hope had almost died and despair overshadowed the world. At length God seemed to have been touched by man's pitiable condition and hopeless state, and America was chosen by Him in which to make a final effort. By a strange and inscrutable method He planted in America a class of men from different countries of Europe in whose hearts there burned the fires of freedom, and from this planting sprang the tree of liberty that today casts its shadow over the habitable globe. By other strange and inscrutable providences the great system of Constitutional Government was evolved, and the honor of founding this government on the great principles of self government and self determination was given to our Revolutionary fathers. They bequeathed it to their

"A few minutes more, Peggy dear, and Daddy will be back with the Kemp's Balsam. Then you can go to sleep and forget that horrid old cough."

KEMP'S BALSAM Will Stop That Cough

children, who maintained it with great success. Their success filled the world with hope. All the civilized nations looked on with intense concern. Pilgrims from all lands came to see if the reports they had heard were true, and their unanimous conclusion was, 'the ball had not been told.' They sent to their native lands accounts of this wonderful government. These filled patriots with hope and monarchs with fear. At this junction our civil war came on. Then monarchs hoped and patriots feared. Was the last hope of man to perish? Were the oppressed to forever serve their cruel masters and never enjoy those inalienable rights of 'life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness?' It was the darkest day in human history when the existence of Constitutional liberty was 'put in jeopardy, and gloom overspread the world's horizon. Devout souls who had indulged the hope that some day their lands might be blessed with a government like ours, prayed, and their prayers were heard. Kind heaven smiled on the North and on the South and gave to both sections that which both desired, though they sought it in a different way—a government of the people, for the people and by the people.' Thus does 'God justify His ways to man.' Today a united people exhibits to the world a concrete example of man's capability for self government.

"The sons of the soldiers of both the Union and Confederate armies have followed the stars and stripes through two successful wars, with unquestioned loyalty, and have filled the world with admiration for the American soldier. A paradox of the Civil War is that the vanquished are more blessed than the victors. While that war resulted in the freedom of three million Africans it at the same time set at liberty ten millions of Americans. The destruction of African slavery was the greatest boon that ever came to the South. Since freedom, she has transformed a land of desolation and ruin into a land of great prosperity. Instead of the few receiving the bounty of nature her gifts are distributed to all. Free schools have disseminated learning alike to all, and the sun shines on no more contented and happy people. Her colleges and universities, swept away by the war, are being rebuilt to meet all the demands of a great people.

"But the greatest benefits of the Civil War have gone to the great world beyond. Taking heart from the decisions of this war the friends of free government throughout the world have renewed the struggle with a hope and an intensity unfelt before. American liberty has been the watchword of patriots from that day to this, and so great has been the growth of sentiment that 'From Greenland's icy mountains to India's coral strand' there comes the universal cry, 'Give us liberty or give us death.' The sentiment from the lips of Virginia's greatest orator that electrified the Colonies, has echoed around the world and inspired its patriots with the hope of Constitutional liberty. This, Noble Veterans, is your glory. When the last throne has fallen, the last crown has crumbled and all nations shall sit down together in the 'Parliament of man, the Federation of the World' then will your glory shine with undimmed luster, and the historians of all lands will award to you your just mead of praise."

NATURE PROVIDES THE INGREDIENTS

Argo-Phosphate, the New Herbal Remedy, Now Endorsed by Local People.

If the digestive organs are not properly performing the work which nature has assigned to them, then nutrition, which is absolutely essential to the recovery of other diseased parts, will be lacking and there can be no permanent relief. When bodily nutrition is normal, the stomach digests the food, the blood absorbs and carries the nourishment to the different parts of the body, causing the various organs to properly perform their functions.

Nature has provided a remedy in the ingredients of Argo-Phosphate, the new herbal stomach remedy, which is now being introduced here. It is purely vegetable and its vitalizing, corrective and reconstructive qualities are so pronounced that beneficial results are noticed from the first day. That this is true, it is not only necessary to listen to the statements made daily by local people who have given Argo-Phosphate a fair trial and have been benefited thereby. It is dispensed by J. James Wood & Son.

A West Virginia state baseball league is proposed for next year, the circuit to embrace Wheeling, Parkersburg, Charleston, Huntington, Clarksburg and Fairmont.

MAYSVILLE EVIDENCE FOR MAYSVILLE PEOPLE

The Statement of Maysville Residents Are Surely More Reliable Than Those of Utter Strangers.

Home testimony is real proof. Public statements of Maysville people carry real weight. What a friend or neighbor says compels respect. The word of one whose home is far away invites your doubts. Here's a Maysville man's statement. And it's for Maysville people's benefit.

Such evidence is convincing. That's the kind of proof that backs Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor: Henry S. Gallenstein, blacksmith, 124 W. Third St., Maysville, says: "My kidneys were out of order and I had pains through my back. Doan's Kidney Pills put an entire stop to the pains and my kidneys became well."

Over four years later, Mr. Gallenstein said: "I haven't had any need of a kidney medicine since I last recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. The benefit they gave me has been permanent. Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Gallenstein had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y."

EVERY ONE SHOULD TRY IT.

One of our customers and staunch supporters of Magnolia Flour has this to say: "You should advertise and keep on advertising until every home in this community has given your flour a trial. Once they use it you may rest assured you will get repeat orders from every one of them. It undoubtedly makes the best bread we have had in years. Just keep up your quality to the present standard and you will soon be supplying the majority of homes regardless of the other flours, which are offered at a cheaper price. Indifferent or poor bread is high at any price." These will be your sentiments if you will order some of this wonderful flour. We know of no reason why your local grocer can not supply you with "Magnolia Flour" but if he cannot, we are ready, willing, and anxious to supply you. Just "phone No. 93.
